■ November Meeting ■ The Rhea County Girls

First Lt. Commander Ted Hartley reports that Ms. Mabell Clark will present the November program on the Rhea County (TN) Girls, a group of women that formed their own female cavalry unit fighting for the Confederacy.

Please note that the meeting will be held one week earlier than usual, on November 21.

Everyone come...and bring a recruit.

When: November 21, 2000. 5:00 pm.

Where: Municipal Art Gallery, State St., Jackson.

See you there!

Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:

Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

October Meeting Report

The Gallant Ridley

The October program was presented by Compatriot and Army of Tennessee Commander George Church who spoke on the US Constitution and how it has become distorted in interpretation from the meaning intended by the founding fathers.

A surprise but most welcome guest arrived immediately following the program. Confederate President Jefferson Finis Davis favored the camp with a brief visit and a few words of encouragement on the Confederate cause. (See the photos of his visit elsewhere in the issue.)
